

Ball State College Republicans

Minutes for February 3rd 2015

Executive Board Members present:

Chair: Joshua Marsh

Vice Chair: Joshua Taulbee

Treasurer: Anthony Cook

Secretary: Morgan Dean

PR Chair: Emily Schebler

Speaker: Judge Feick

The meeting began at 7:01pm

Chair Joshua Marsh introduced our guest.

- Judge Feick talked about his jurisdiction: which is everything except juvenile and state.
- He also serves on the Forensic and Veterans boards.
- 80% of Criminal Court is drugs and alcohol related
- “Everyone wants to be tough on crime but no one wants to pay for the prisons.”
- Veterans court: everyone sticks around to help each other out
- Delaware County has reduced the sentence for meth
- “First high is the best high you’re always looking for that again.”
- Judge Feick was an attorney for 21 years prior to becoming a judge
- He is the only Republican judge in Delco.
- He has ran for school board and state rep.
- He believes that everyone should practice law at least 5 years before joining the bench.
- “Practice is a lot different from the book.”

The meeting concluded at approximately 7:30

Everyone stayed after for a picture with Judge Feick